A weekly production of the Weare Public Library

Center Woods Elementary School held Curriculum Night in March to showcase academics while offering an evening of food, fun, and activities, featuring guest readers, a book swap, & community booths. Photo: Kindergartener Macy Parsons walks a "Ruff Reader" from Caring Paws Therapy Dogs.

Age-Friendly Weare

Thursday, April 6, 9:30-11:30am

Weare Public Library, 10 Paige Memorial Lane, Weare

Southern New Hampshire Planning Commission has embarked on a "Becoming Age-Friendly" program to identify community assets, roadblocks, and opportunities for improving the livability for residents of all ages. Please join our public forum intended to spark discussion with stakeholders covering Housing/Zoning, Businesses/Economic Development, Recreation/Engagement, and Transportation/Accessibility. FOOD WILL BE PROVIDED!

"Becoming Age-Friendly" emphasizes engagement and understanding of not only the senior population, but also millennials and young adults. Please take our 10-minute survey at www.surveymonkey.com/r/BecomingAgeFriendly and follow us on Facebook @BecomingAgeFriendly; upon survey completion you may enter into a raffle to win a $50 Visa gift card!

Acoustic Café Scholarship Fundraiser

Come join us for a relaxing yet entertaining night out. This is a John Stark Teachers' Association fundraiser for graduating senior scholarships. Tickets will be on sale at the door for $10. Price includes food, beverage, and all the entertainment you can handle. Please come and support this wonderful fundraising event!

Mental Health/Medical Registration Night

Tuesday, April 18, 5:30-7:30pm

Weare Police Department

144 N Stark Hwy.

The Weare Police Department is holding a voluntary registration for the collection of pertinent medical information to be used by emergency first responders to include, but not limited to, Autism, Alzheimer's Disease, Dementia, Acquired Brain Injury, Deaf, Blind, Mental Health challenges, and other physical disabilities.

We would also like to register homes, to collect information on hide-a-key locations, garage door codes, oxygen in house, wheel chair bound individuals, etc. Having this information on file saves time which in return could save lives!! Any questions, contact Officer Sheila Savaria - Sheila.savaria@wearepolice.com

From Moldova to Weare

Monday, April 17, 7pm

Weare Public Library, 10 Paige Memorial Lane

All are welcome to this special cross-cultural presentation. Exchange student Madalina Sprincean is a high school student and traditional dancer in her home country of Moldova, but she traveled 4,500 miles to spend the year here in Weare. Hear her take on her homeland, her host community, and the differences she sees.

A Note from

The Weare Police Department

As you know, we have a law set in place to restrict the use of electronic devices while driving. Did you know there are clear risks involving your passengers as well? When airbags are deployed significant injuries (or worse) are likely to occur if cell phones or other devices are between them and these safety mechanisms. Please consider all of the risks involved when sharing the roadways.
