Music from 20’s to Today at Henniker Concert
Tuesday, August 6, 7pm
Angela Robinson Bandstand, Henniker

Henniker welcomes Off the Cuff, a semi-acoustic instrumental and vocal quartet interpreting songs from the twenties to the 21st century. The group has been delighting audiences across southern New Hampshire and surrounding areas for 20 years. Incorporating elements of jazz, swing, blues, bluegrass, rock, folk and world music styles, Off the Cuff infuses its own special blend of vocal and instrumental harmony into every song, reinventing it as something new and personal.

The concerts is free, although donations to the Town of Henniker are welcome. In case of rain, the convert will be held indoors at the Community Center. Bring a chair, spread a blanket, visit a local restaurant or have a picnic supper on the lawn and join your neighbors and friends. The complete summer schedule is available on the Town of Henniker website: www.henniker.org. For more information, contact hennikerconcerts@henniker.org.

National Parks of the Rocky Mountains
Monday, August 12, 6:30pm
Sawyer Room, Weare Public Library

The Rocky Mountains stretch throughout the middle of our nation and provide a wondrous variety of ecosystems that range from high mountain peaks to subterranean worlds. Our parks expert Steve Farrar will take us on a tour of nine National Parks from Glacier National Park on the Canadian border all the way down to Big Bend National Park on the southern border with Mexico.

Steve Farrar grew up in the Boston suburb of Medfield and experienced his first National Parks as an impressionable 14-year-old on the way to the 1969 National Boy Scout Jamboree in Idaho. The 5-day bus trip from Salt Lake City included stops in Grand Teton National Park, Yellowstone National Park, and Glacier National Park, sparking a fascination with natural beauty that has evolved into his life-long passion for visiting our National Parks. His adventures exploring 59 of the 61 parks include hiking to the bottom of the Grand Canyon, scuba diving the coral reefs of the Virgin Islands, camping among the wolves on Isle Royale, scaling rock faces in Yosemite, and climbing to the summits of Mount Rainier and Denali. Steve’s pictures and stories of his travels are sure to stoke your personal wanderlust, so come prepared to be inspired!

Highlights Ahead of Old Home Day

Old Home Day will be Saturday, August 24, from 10am to 3pm. In addition to all the entertainment, local history, raffles, and of course the pie and chili cookoff, there will be dozens of booths and vendors offering specialty food, services, pet care products, home and garden help, health and beauty items, and more. Here are a few highlights to go looking for.

Gisele Albertelli from Fudge n Stuff of Leominster, MA, will make her first visit to Weare with 20 flavors of specialty homemade fudge; candied walnuts, cashews, pecans, and almonds; and caramel glazed, kettle corn, and butter flavored popcorn. She produces roughly 40 to 50 pounds of fudge a week, sometimes more. Fudge n Stuff has been around since 2012, but you will only find them online or at special events like Old Home Day. To check them out or place an order, find them on Facebook, or email fudgeNstuff12@gmail.com or giselealbertelli@gmail.com.

Other food attractions at Old Home Day include the Weare Historical Café, selling hot dogs, pulled pork, hamburgers, sausages, drinks, and chips. Sweet Love Bakery will be there, as will American Frozen Foods, a delivery service that features their all-natural meats.

Delina Kelley will be there with Young Living Essential Oils. Delina is also offering a series of classes and make-your-own workshops at the Weare Library this fall, the first being “For the Love of Essential Oils” on Saturday, August 3 at 10am in the Sawyer Room. Want to know more about her offerings at Old Home Day or to RSVP for one of her classes, email her at YLbyDelina@yahoo.com.

Other Health and Beauty booths will include Color Street, selling dry nail polish strips; Joy Grant of Simply-Less Pain.com, promoting real time pain relief products; Brittany McElveen of Nuskin, with whitening toothpaste, skin care, and health supplements; Nancy Kincaid of Nancy's Homemade Soaps & Lotions; Perfectly Posh natural-based products for face and body; and don’t forget to get a chair massage from Linda Demaine Massage.

Theatre and Film Camp

John Stark Regional High School hosts The Weare Henniker Summer Theatre and Film Camp for 10 to 18-year-olds from August 5th to 8th, from 9am to 3pm each day. This is the local company's 19th year of offering summer camps. In this one young people write plays and films, rehearse them, and then tape them (in four days!).

The Lending Doll, a musical comedy based on a real-life story about a doll that saved a library, is the featured musical in camps this summer for youth in Weare and Stoddard. A public performance of the musical will be at 7pm at Clark Library on August 9.

Contact Tom Dunn at dunn.t@comcast.net or 568-5102 for more info.
